

Student Could be Expelled for Knife

Monday, 21 November 2011 13:34 -

A middle schooler in La Crosse faces expulsion after bringing a knife to school. Cops say the 11 year-old from Logan middle grabbed the knife from home and showed it to a student before school, giving her a scare. The school confiscated the nine inch lock blade knife and sent the boy home. POlice have charged him as a juvenile for carrying a concealed weapon.