

Cullen To Announce Gubernatorial Plans At 2pm

Wednesday, 01 February 2012 13:44 -

(AP) Democratic state Sen. Tim Cullen plans to make an announcement Wednesday afternoon about his plans for the governor's race. Cullen has been saying for months that he will run as a Democrat to challenge Gov. Scott Walker if a recall election is called. Former Dane County Executive Kathleen Falk has also announced that she is running. Cullen is a moderate Democrat from Janesville who has been in the Senate since 2010. The 67-year-old previously served in the Senate from 1974 to 1986 before he left to become secretary of the state Department of Health and Human Services under Republican Gov. Tommy Thompson. He later worked for nearly 20 years as an insurance company executive.
