A married couple has been busted for dealing pot in La Crosse. Police got a crimestoppers tip about the couple who they arrested on Friday. They say 29 year-olds Jeremy and Jennifer Jenkins have been dealing marijuana out of their southside trailer. Cops found a couple pounds of pot and thousands of dollars in the Quail drive trailer along with some pot brownies, psychedelic mushroom brownies and numerous types of prescription drugs. Police also found the couple's children, three and six years-old, who are now being cared for by relatives.
