

Obesity Grant Will Mean Four New Hires in County

Friday, 26 March 2010 08:23 - Last Updated Friday, 26 March 2010 08:27

You know how the federal stimulus act from last year was supposed to put people to work? That's exactly what fed money La Crosse county is getting to fight obesity will do.

Four people will be hired to administer the funds says county nutritionist Linda Lee. It was her successful application that landed the $2.2 million in grant money for the county. Only one of two counties in the state to receive such obesity battling grants.