

Governor Walker has signed legislation aimed at enhancing education and promoting job creation by offering high school students a chance to get technical diplomas just like high school diplomas. But Troy Harcey with the La Crosse School District says they have a similar program installed already.

Under the law, school boards will be able to offer the technical education high school diploma to students who fulfill the requirements for a traditional high school diploma and successfully complete a technical education program in one or two subjects.