

Heim Says Governor Won't Win By Much

Friday, 30 March 2012 14:49 -

UW-L Political Professor, Joe Heim, says the announcement today by the GAB that recall elections have been ordered, was very anti-climatic. And he feels that if Governor Scott Walker were to win a recall election...it won't be a slam dunk for him to do so.

Heim says it's very hard to determine which political polls to watch since this will be a very different type of election.