

Absentee Voting Starts Today

Monday, 21 May 2012 09:38 -

Absentee voting begins today for the June fifth recall elections. Ballots were sent out last Friday to those requesting them by mail and today is when folks can start voting at municipal clerks' offices.

Reid Magney of the state Government Accountability Board expects an increase in absentee voting this time, especially because many people will be on vacation.