

Pet Shop Robbery Suspect Headed To Trial

Tuesday, 22 May 2012 11:54 -

A La Crosse man pleads 'not guilty' to an attempted holdup at a north-side business...

Michael Wilken will be scheduled for trial, but his attorney says he and the D-A are working on a negotiated plea. Wilken has told police that he wanted money to buy heroin. He's accused of threatening the owner of the Olde Towne North Pet Store with a knife, but the owner chased the robber away by threatening to hit him with a board.