

The National Republican Party is keeping a close eye on next week's recall election here in Wisconsin. In a call with reporters today, RNC Director, Reince Priebus, said they are 100% behind Scott Walker.

Priebus said the recall election will also play very favorable for them with the presidential election in November if Walker defeats challenger, Tom Barrett.