

Winona Realtor Jack Krage and Senator Jeremy Miller, of Winona, will compete for the District 28 seat in the Minnesota Senate in 2012.

The Democratic-Farmer-Labor Party endorsed Krage at a convention last month. Miller got his party's nod last month as well. Krage says he's got plenty of ammunition and that Miller's record alone will bury him. Miller says he feels confident in being re-elected. Candidates have until 5pm today to file for office.
