

Walker To Attend Funerals Today

Friday, 10 August 2012 10:13 -

---

Governor Scott Walker is still shocked and saddened over the Sikh Temple shooting last Sunday near Milwaukee. He visited the families of those that died in the shooting rampage and after, used the experience in his weekly radio address.

Walker said he would place a visitor's book in the state Capitol rotunda where visitors could write notes of condolence to the Sikh community. He is attending their funerals later today.