

Loggers Host Game 2 With NWL Championship Looming

Tuesday, 14 August 2012 09:58 -

With a win tonight against the Wisconsin Woodchucks, the La Crosse Loggers will find themselves playing for a NWL Championship later this week. Last night, Wausau saw just a tad over 600 fans show up for the game. GM Chris Goodell says you can expect many more than that at Copeland Park tonight.

The Loggers broke or tied several team and Northwoods League records with their 14-6 win last night.
