

A clear win for either candidate in last night's presidential debate? Depends on who you talk to. La Crosse county democratic party chair, Vicki Burke believes president Obama at least made a thoughtful, passionate showing

\(Click for Audio\)

Burke says, while Romney relies on simplistic sloganeering for his one-liners, the president delivers thoughtful and complete evaluations on issues affecting Americans.