

Vernon County Man Dead In Accident

Friday, 19 October 2012 08:24 -

A rural Hillsboro man is dead after a single car accident last night in Vernon County. 59 year old Joseph Verbsky was driving in the Town of Greenwood when he lost control of his car. After coming around a curve the car went off of the road and followed the shoulder of the road as it continued down an embankment. Verbsky went through a set of small trees.....struck the bottom of the embankment and was thrown from the car.

Verbsky was not wearing his seatbelt. He was later pronounced dead at the scene by the Vernon County Coroner's Office.

This marks Vernon County's 10th traffic fatality for the year of 2012.
