

Chris Herren rose to the top and then nearly fell through the bottom because of drug addiction. Along the way becoming a messenger about surviving. The former NBA boston Celtics guard comes to La Crosse tomorrow as the featured speaker in the YMCA's third annual Community Inspiration Event. And a few other talks as well, says Y executive director, Bill Soper

\(Click for Audio\)

So, Herren will have a busy day. Soper says he sought out Herren after watching his story on an ESPN 30 for 30 documentary.