

Huber Leaving Job With County

Thursday, 29 April 2010 15:47 -

New York's gain is LaCrosse county's loss. After serving for nearly a dozen years county human services director Jerry Huber is leaving his post to accept a job working with disabled people in the Big Apple. He says the people were the best part of his job in LaCrosse county. This is a homecoming for Huber. He grew up in Manhattan and already has a daughter living in New York. His new job starts in July.
