

Farmer Resigns From La Crosse Council

Thursday, 08 November 2012 22:01 -

After 39 years on the La Crosse city council, the banker calls it quits.

10th district councilman Doug Farmer last night announces his resignation from the city council, effective immediately, as redistricting has put his home in a different council district.