

Could be changes yet this winter to enforcement of alternate side parking in La Crosse. The city council next month will consider a proposal to allow towing of cars on the wrong side of the street when it snows. Something has to be done, says police lieutenant, Pat Hogan, to move the cars that get in the way

\(Click for Audio\)

Also being considered is a plan to possibly triple the cost for alternate side tickets for those cars on the wrong side of the street overnight during a snow event.