

If you like to shop brick and mortar businesses that are small and local then tomorrow is your day. Small Business Saturday, started by American Express two years ago, with the focus of spending your holiday money in these types of stores. Downtown Mainstreet's, Tim Kabat.

\(Click for Audio\)

The special shopping day encourages consumers to commit to spending $50 of their current monthly budgets with independently owned small businesses they care about. Kabat says the downtown is filled with them.