

A lot of things went behind local and statewide smoking rates to to go down in 2012. In La Crosse, Judy Zable with the Health Department has a few examples.

\(Click for Audio\)

She says just because the numbers have dropped in the high schools and middle schools doesn't mean they are satisfied where they are. She adds 2013 should be a great year with new non smoking campaigns coming.