

The wheels on the Onalaska Great River Cultural and Tourism Center are back in motion after a slight design delay. We talked with City Planner, Brea Grace about where the plans are now.

\(Click for Audio\)

Monies are coming from the National Scenic Byways Program, which is providing more than $1.2 million in grants. The city has committed almost $380 thousand in matching funds. Ground should be broken in the fall of 2014.