

Lawmakers in Minnesota will hold hearings next week that will address dramatic increases in student tuition, fees, and debt over the past six years at the University of Minnesota and MnSCU.

\(Click for Audio\)

D-F-L Representative Gene Pelowski of Winona says other items being looked at include administrative costs; student to faculty ratios; and funding by number of students.