

International student numbers at UW-L places the campus third among UW System campus schools. And they spent over $9 million in the area last year. And it's not just money they bring them to western Wisconsin.

\(Click for Audio\)

Chancellor Joe Gow says when your featured in two national magazines, it also helps with bringing the students here.