

Onalaska's Omni Center will be looking for a new management team come April. This after the city terminated the agreement they had with Rink Management Services. Mayor Joe Chilsen.

\(Click for Audio\)

The company, based in Virginia, was hired to run the Omni Center facility in December 2011. The city will take over the day to day operations after April 1st.