

City Road Patching Just Temporary Fix

Thursday, 14 February 2013 12:25 -

Road construction season is still months away in Wisconsin. But La Crosse streets crews have been out this week doing road repairs. City public works director Dale Hexom says a break in winter weather allowed crews to do some much-needed patches in the city's bone-jarring potholes and concrete gaps. Temporary patch only, says Hexom

\(Click for Audio\)

Hexom says, because the city can only afford to do major repairs every few decades, temporary road patches for most potholes is about as good as it gets.