

Dems Respond To Walker Budget

Thursday, 21 February 2013 11:55 -

State Senator Jennifer Shilling led the Democratic Weekly Radio Address today, a day after Governor Walker released his projected two year budget. Lacking is a key word to Shilling when talking about the proposed budget.

\(Click for Audio\)

Shilling also said the governor is wrong not to take millions of federal dollars to expand Medicaid, and he should have done more to help the middle class.