

Last year, Julian Bradley became the only black Republican Party county chairman in Wisconsin. In January, Bradley was unanimously elected to his first full two-year term. Since then, the biggest question he gets? Julian...why are you a Republican?

\(Click for Audio\)

The newly elected vice chairman of the Wisconsin GOP's 3rd Congressional District, plans to shatter those stereotypes with talks he will give at all of the UW System campuses next month. Bradley says he will also talk about the Republican Party's future and the steps the party must take to effectively reconnect with minorities in the United States.