

A new management system is in place for the Goose Island Campground. This after the manager of the county owned campground was given the boot after failing to turn over more than $70 thousand in fees collected in 2012.

\(Click for Audio\)

The county will hire one full-time and three part-time employees for the April 15th through October 30th season, including staff for the on-site store. It also will secure two camper hosts who will live at the 200 acre campground.