

Apartments Going Smoke Free

Thursday, 18 April 2013 08:49 -

David Birdd of Birddseye Development owns quite a few apartments in the area. He says after a renter, who has smoked, leaves the apartment, the clean is quite extensive .

\(Click for Audio\)

And all of that can cost around 2 thousand dollars. Birdd says a new, 42 unit apartment building he oversaw the construction of in West Salem, will be 100% smoke free when it opens in June.