A tussle over some borrowed money has police looking for an armed robbery suspect. Cops say a 19 year-old was in the parking lot of an ice cream place on the southside of La Crosse trying to pay back 20 bucks he owed some guy. But the guy apparently took all the young fellas money. nearly three hundred bucks. The victim tried to grab the keys from the van the thug was in. But, for his efforts, got choked and dragged for a short time while hanging out of the van. Cops are looking for the apparent robber. They've ticketed the vans driver. The robbery victim has some scrapes and bruises but he's okay otherwise.
