

Detective Faces OWI Charges

Wednesday, 05 June 2013 21:51 - Last Updated Wednesday, 05 June 2013 21:52

A Waukesha County Sheriff's Detective was arrested in Sparta in last week for operating a vehicle while intoxicated. The detective, Bradley Anderson, was joined in the car by two Menomonee Falls officers and one Waukesha police officer. They were stopped around 2:30 in the morning.

Anderson, a 23-year veteran, was off-duty at the time of the arrest.

The detective has been placed on administrative duty.

The Menomonee Falls department also is doing an internal investigation.