

Hunters and anglers who enjoy the riches of Wisconsin's land and waters now can enjoy another time-honored tradition at reduced prices. The Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources and the Milwaukee Brewers are teaming up to offer DNR Days at Miller Park. Anyone holding any Wisconsin hunting or fishing license is eligible for discounted tickets on select home games at Miller Park in Milwaukee. In addition, each ticket purchased through the DNR Days program will include a free regulation blaze orange ball cap with the Brewers logo on it. The following dates are designated DNR Days:

Friday, July 19 7:10 p.m. vs. Marlins
Tuesday, July 23 7:10 p.m. vs. Padres
Friday, August 2 7:10 p.m. vs. Nationals
Thursday, August 15 7:10 p.m. vs. Reds
Friday, August 30 7:10 p.m. vs. Angels
Friday, September 13 7:10 p.m. vs. Reds
Thursday, September 19 1:10 p.m. vs. Cubs
Sunday, September 22 1:10 p.m. vs. Cardinals

Terrace box seats, which normally are $24 each, are available for $17 under this program. Likewise, field outfield box seats which are normally $42 each, will be sold for $26. License holders can take advantage of this program by going to the DNR website at <http://dnr.wi.gov> and putting in the keyword "DNR Days" in the search box.
