

Tugboat Caught At Dresbach Dam, One Person Missing

Wednesday, 03 July 2013 06:34 - Last Updated Wednesday, 03 July 2013 06:34

A boat has gone through the dam at Dresbach. It happened early this morning, and rescue crews are on scene. We are told it was a 50 x 20 foot tugboat that was stuck at the top of Lock and Dam #7. There is word that three crew members were on board, and two of them were able to escape. The search is on for the third. A number of police and rescue crews are on scene.