

It's been awhile since we've heard of changes to voting in Wisconsin....until now. The Government Accountability Board has unanimously approved some restrictions for poll observers who stand near polling sites. La Crosse County Clerk, Ginny Denkmeyer says Wisconsin's polling places are becoming more accessible and they can pose problems.

\(Click for Audio\)

The GAB approval of the a rule to keep poll observers at least six feet from voters now goes to the legislature.