

A push to realign some school conferences in western Wisconsin hit some snags with the WIAA recently. MVC Commissioner, Terry Erickson says there's two options out there. One would move West Salem to the MVC in football only. Another option would be to build a schedule with all three conferences featuring 20 schools. The problem?

\(Click for Audio\)

Erickson says the proposal sent in to the WIAA was shot down.....now they have to get together another one by the board of control meeting coming up on September 13th.