

Xcel Cleanup in La Crosse Mostly Routine

Tuesday, 22 October 2013 14:49 -

A coming Xcel clean-up in La Crosse turns out to be pretty routine. Xcel will tackle the clean-up of contaminated soil around the southside Oktoberfest grounds this year, trucking out tons of soil from what used to be a manufactured gas plant. Sites that are pretty common leftovers from a bygone era

\(Click for Audio\)

Brian Elwood from Xcel. The clean-up will involve the company removing three Oktoberfest buildings but isn't expected to affect next year's fest.