

Revels Remembered

Monday, 02 August 2010 20:21 -

A LaCrosse man who drowned over the weekend is remembered by friends and co-workers. Lori the manager of Bucky's Burger Barn says Andrew Revels enjoyed life and had a way of making everyone else enjoy life with him. Lori tells Wizzum News that Andrew liked adventure but wasn't a guy who spent a lot of time on the Mississippi River. The 27 year old Revels died over the past weekend when he was pulled underwater by a the undertow from a barge while tubing on the river. On Thursday the bar will hold a Celebration of Life Ceremony for Andrew following his funeral
