

The La Crosse School District board, for the third time in ten years, approved placing a referendum question on the Spring ballot Monday night. This one is just shy of $21 million.

Board member, Ken French has a message for people who will go to the polls in April .

\(Click for Audio\)

The referendum breaks down like this. Over $3 million for classes, $400 thousand for building maintenance and the same amount for technology. All over a five year period. The referendum received a unanimous vote.