The judge is from Monroe County and the prosecutor is from Jackson County.

Court officials from outside La Crosse are now assigned to the trial of a La Crosse cop accused of threatening his family. Alan Iverson returns to court this afternoon for a pre-trial hearing. Sergeant Iverson was arrested last month, after allegedly threatening to kill his wife and kids, and himself, because his wife said she wanted a divorce. Iverson is charged with making threats to injure, and a domestic abuse count of disorderly conduct.
