

Almost 70 thousand Wisconsinites eligible for health care insurance do not have it, and time for them to enroll is running out. People need to sign up for health insurance from the Affordable Care Act before the enrollment deadline of March 31st. After that date Greg Skempf with Gunderson Health System?

\(Click for Audio\)

Those eligible who do not sign up by then would have to wait until enrollment opened again later in the year, and they could not receive health care until 2015. Anyone seeking health care coverage through the federal marketplace can visit Healthcare.gov