

Several new laws were signed Monday designed to help people with opiate abuse and addition. Governor Scott Walker signed seven bills that were part of the Heroin Opiate Prevention and Education legislative package. Walker talks about what the laws will now do.

\(Click for Audio\)

The H.O.P.E Legislation also allows short term sanctions for people who violate conditions of extended supervision, parole, probation designed to help deal with the addition to prevent further crimes. Additional dollars in the drug court programs are also in the budget.