

La Crosse County Holds Reorganizational Meeting

Wednesday, 16 April 2014 09:55 - Last Updated Wednesday, 16 April 2014 09:56

---

A partly new La Crosse County Board takes office...

\(Click for Audio\)

The members elected on April 1st began their two-year terms last night, as they took their oaths from Judge Scott Horne:

\(Click for Audio\)

Five new supervisors were chosen by the voters, as three incumbents were unseated. And at this point, two of the 29 seats are vacant. Hubert Hoffman has to wait until the end of the week to take office, after winning a recount. And nominations are being accepted to fill the seat of Andrew Londre, who won a new term and then announced he was moving to a different district in La Crosse.