

Vigil for Missing Student Tonight

Tuesday, 16 February 2010 12:41 -

A vigil tonight for a missing college student in La Crosse. WTC and UWL will hold a vigil tonight for 21 year-old Craig Meyers who disappeared over the week-end. The vigil begins at 6:30 tonight on the TC campus at the Lunda center at seventh street on the downtown campus. TC says the vigil is open to anyone who wants to support the family and friends of Meyers. Meyers, also a former high school wrestling state champion from West Salem, is a student in TC's criminal justice program.
