

Remember the Iowa man arrested in La Crosse just after his parents were found dead in their home last month?

Jonathan Neunaber (NEW-naber) will be tried in December for murdering his mother. But his father reportedly died of natural causes, according to the Plymouth County Sheriff's Office. Authorities aren't giving the specific cause of Don Neunaber's death. Esther Neunaber died from blunt force trauma. Jonathan was held in the La Crosse County jail for a few days after a warrant was issued for him.
