

The City of Onalaska's Waterfront Committee held their first of several community meetings last night as a first in the series of public involvement opportunities regarding the Onalaska waterfront and the Great River Landing. Onalaska Land Use & Development Director, Brea Grace.

\(Click for Audio\)

The Community Meeting agenda covered project background and history, the planning and charrette process and a waterfront presentation.