

Name Released In Freak Accident

Tuesday, 26 August 2014 09:39 - Last Updated Tuesday, 26 August 2014 09:41

Monroe County has released the name of the 19 year old man that died over the weekend in a freak accident. Aaron Brockman of New Lisbon died after being struck in the head by a tow strap while attempting to free a tractor which was stuck in mud. It happened in the Monroe County Township of Wellington on Friday night.