

The UW-Lacrosse holds its 46th annual Mid-year Commencement Sunday. A total of 626 students are expected to graduate, including 470 receiving undergraduate degrees and 156 receiving graduate degrees. Three ceremonies are planned for Mitchell Hall Gymnasium.

The ceremonies include:

11 a.m. College of Liberal Studies — Speaker: three-time Grammy award winner Bill Miller.

2 p.m. College of Business Administration — Speaker: Jessica Karis, '05, a recruiter and an agent for Works for Northwestern Mutual Life.

3:30 p.m. College of Science and Health — Speaker: Brian Soller, '96, Vice President Corporate Development and Sales at Lightpath Technologies.

All graduation ceremonies are also cablecast live on Charter Cable Channel 989, as well as on Channel 96 in La Crosse. Graduation ceremonies also are live available on Channel 6 on UW-L campus cable TV in classrooms and residence halls.